25X1A

Dear Bill:

I have need to be in your fine city of Austin on June 24 to attend a one-day seminar at the local IBM facility. If your current planning is to be in Austin on Wednesday, June 23, I think I will take advantage of the trip and spend the afternoon with you.

My current plans are to arrive in Austin on June 23 aboard Braniff flight #105 at 1340 hours. If it is convenient, I would much enjoy seeing you at the airport and then we can adjourn to your office and tell war stories for "sometime".

I would also be much appreciative if you could make a hotel reservation for me for the evenings of June 23 and 24. My tastes are moderate so that a minimum single with bath should be just fine. I suspect I would prefer to stay in town as opposed to a place at the airport, if such there be, but I leave the reservation to you.

I look forward both to the opportunity of seeing you and to your reply letting me know if you will be available.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake
